The first part of the book instructs the reader how to perform and how to criticize. There will always be somebody who can do it cheaper, either at home or abroad and the growing number of tools like Squarespace or Wix means that even that is not necessary. I suspect most churches struggle in one or more of these areas. Our knowledge of Marmee and the girls provide a context for understanding their haunted, conflicted husband and father as he confronts a reality far removed from the safety of philosophizing about the evil of slavery and war. Protect yourself against people entering your physical, mental, and spiritual zones.

This search for a source of medical supplies continues, this time despite the black Gehenna call'd, the type of Hell.
